

QA for international students

1. What does the scholarship cover?

If you are offered a scholarship in the admissions letter, it will cover your tuition fee for the entire period of study plus a medical insurance, and you will also be given a monthly stipend. The stipend given to international students is on equal basis to Kazakhstani students. The approximate amount per month, according to your educational degree, is the following:

As of May 25, 2020:

1 USD = 415,98 KZT

Foundation: 53 USD

Bachelor: 63 USD

Master: 300 USD

PhD: 246 USD + teaching or research assistantship bonus

Note: The exchange rate from KZT to USD is subject to change.

The condition to continue receiving a monthly stipend for the following semesters, is for the student to be in good academic standing and do not have any misconduct reports:

- For Foundation and bachelor's degree, your semester GPA should be of two points and above out of four.
- For Master programs, you should maintain a semester GPA of three points and above out of four.
- For PhD programs besides maintaining a semester GPA of three points and above, you should also deliver a report of your research activities at the end of each semester (depending on the indications given by the students' office at your school).

2. If admitted on a tuition fee-basis, how should I process the payment (one at a time, upon arrival or in several tranches)?

Once you have accepted your decision of admission, you will be notified by email to stop by at the Bursar's office on campus to sign your agreement in person upon arrival and proceed to do the payment.

Bursar's office offers three payment modalities:

- Payment at one time: It is done ten days after the signing of the agreement. If deciding to go on this modality and pay on time, a 5% discount is entitled to you.
- Payment in two tranches: If you decide to do your payment in two parts, you will do the first payment at the beginning of the fall semester (August), and the second payment at the middle of October.
- Payment in three tranches: You will do the first payment at the beginning of the fall semester (August), the second payment at the middle of October, and the third payment at the beginning of January.
- Payment in four tranches: You will do the first payments in the months indicated at the three tranches section, plus a final payment on March.

If you will be enrolled at NU as a visiting student, please refer to your destination school's office for further information related to fares per credit.

3. Does NU offer visa support for international students?

All International students need a Student Visa (C9 category) to come to Kazakhstan. This type of visa is given for the period of one year and allows you to make multiple entries to Kazakhstan. Visa shall be renewed each year. Nazarbayev University, through the Department of International Cooperation, supports international students as follows:

- The Department of International Cooperation (DIC) will submit the documents to the Migration Police as soon as the Agreement for Educational Services with Nazarbayev University is signed. Once the Letter of Invitation (LOI) is ready, its copy will be emailed to you.
- As soon as you receive your Letter of invitation, check to make sure all your personal information is correct. If any of the information on your letter of invitation does not match the information in your passport or is otherwise incorrect, please contact Department of International Cooperation immediately.

4. How much does the accommodation cost?

The amount to pay for the dormitory accommodation is divided into two different modalities: Standard tariff and commercial tariff.

- Standard tariff: It applies to students staying during the summer, fall and spring semesters who have registered courses via the Office of the Registrar system, who have internship approved by their schools, and Career and Advising Center, who have research (thesis projects), and for PhD and for Master of Doctor students.

- Commercial tariff: It applies when the students decide to stay in the dormitory for the winter break. Regarding this tariff details please contact student\_housing@nu.edu.kz.

Below, we provide the breakdown of the dormitory tariffs* per semester calculated in KZT/USD:

| Type of accommodation                              | Standard tariff (KZT/USD/semester) |
|--|------------------------------------|
| One place in a dormitory room with four beds       | 19 950/ 48                         |
| Double occupancy in a dormitory room with two beds | 26 260 / 63                        |
| Single occupancy in a dormitory room with two beds | 87 780 / 211                       |

Additionally, on a competitive basis, students with families can be able to apply for one-bedroom apartments or studios on campus. The average cost per month is 105 000 KZT (approximately 252 USD), including utilities.

If you pay a contribution to Student Fund (approximately 9 USD per semester), you will be eligible to get a 20% discount applied to the total price of your semester stay. Please note that this discount only applies for standard tariff and should be paid before check-in and before paying the dormitory fee. The discount does not apply for family studio apartments.

Note: For students in socially vulnerable category (SVC): Orphans, having physical or mental disabilities, or coming from multi-child family, the dormitory is free of charge.

9. May I cook in my room?

Cooking is limited to certain blocks.

- If you were admitted in Foundation program, unfortunately, you will not be able to cook as the block where you will be living does not have a kitchen. Nevertheless, each floor of your dormitory block is equipped with a refrigerator which can be used by all the residents free of charge.
- If you were admitted to a Bachelor, Master, or PhD program, each floor in your dormitory is equipped with a kitchen that can be accessed by the residents living on that specific floor. Each kitchen is equipped with two fridges, two freezers, two cookers, two ovens, cupboards and drawers where you can leave your food and dishes.

For cooking, please note that each student should buy their own kitchen appliances upon arrival. If you would like to receive recommendations in where to buy them in the city at affordable prices, don't hesitate in contacting Sandra Real, Manager of International Students' Engagement and Advising (sandra.real@nu.edu.kz) who will provide you with tips and show you around the stores or markets in the city upon request during the weekends.

10. Can I get a job on campus to help pay for my expenses?

According to the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan, international students under a C9 type visa are not allowed to apply for a work permit and engage in activities outside of campus in the form of internships, part-time or full-time jobs during the duration of their studies. This rule also applies for summer and winter breaks.

The only students that can engage on internships and part-time jobs outside of campus are citizens of countries belonging to the Eurasian Economic Union such as Armenia, Belarus, Kyrgyzstan, and Russia, or students who have permanent residence permit in Kazakhstan.

In case you are not a citizen of the previous listed countries, do not worry at all! Nazarbayev University, through the Career and Advising Center department, offers you the opportunity to apply for the "Work on campus" program and get an international work experience during your studies in administrative departments of the university and its affiliated organizations. Under this program, you will be allowed to work 10 hours per week. If you would like to find out more information, please don't hesitate in getting in touch with CAC: cac@nu.edu.kz.

Once you have received your NU email account, make sure to visit the CAC portal: <https://cac.nu.edu.kz/en/> and click in the icon "Find a job/internship". In this section, you need to sign up with your NU account, create your profile, and upload your CV or resume. Once you have completed your profile, you will be able to apply for any part-time work opportunity on campus. If you are close to graduate, you can also use this portal to apply for full-time job positions in Nur-Sultan and other cities in Kazakhstan.

Also, some international students have been able to cover their personal expenses working as part-time teaching assistants. Usually these positions are advertised by academic departments of each school or through the nu.edu.kz portal in the section of "Administrative and Academic jobs" <https://careers.smartrecruiters.com/NazarbayevUniversity1/administrative-academic-jobs>

11. How much money should I bring with me?

- We recommend bringing between 400-500 USD minimum to cover your personal expenses during the first two months (August-September) while you receive your first stipend in October. This amount will be enough to cover firsthand necessities such as getting kitchen appliances for cooking at the dormitories, buying winter clothes, covering daily food expenses, for buying a SIM and transportation card, laundry services, and hiring internet services.
- In case you are not receiving a stipend, we suggest a part of the extra 500 USD to cover firsthand necessities during the months of August and September, to have in your bank account minimum 300-400 USD every month for your living expenses.
